

Juvenile liability for the administrative delicts

Abstract

In my thesis, I deal with juvenile liability for the administrative delicts. The goal of my thesis is to analyze and to evaluate the current administrative delicts legislation and to propose certain measures I would personally take regarding these issues.

In the first part, I define some key terms for my thesis, which are liability, administrative delict, age and juveniles.

The second part is dedicated to the principles of imposing punishments upon juveniles. The purpose of imposing administrative punishments upon juveniles is so that they would live proper life and so that they would not repeat illegal acts. While imposing punishments upon juveniles, the administrative body must consider many factors, the main goal is so that the punishment would fulfill its educational purpose and at the same time so that it would not disturb juvenile's further development.

In the third part, I introduce what differences regarding punishments upon juvenile transgressors are comprised in the current legislation. I am also concerned with the administrative procedures specifics leading to the imposition of punishments upon a juvenile transgressor in this part.

In the fourth part, I deal with the specifics of a hearing of an administrative delict with a juvenile, particularly with the other entities participating on the proceedings, which the law adjudicates certain entitlements to, in order to defend the juvenile accused's interests. I dedicate to these entitlements in the individual chapters. At the end of this part, I mention the possibility of leading a joint proceedings with a juvenile and also the situation when the juvenile accused reaches the age of eighteen during the hearing of an administrative delict.

The fifth chapter concerns with the history of the special provisions regarding imposing punishments upon juveniles in former legislations.

In the final part, I analyze measures imposed upon juvenile delinquents according to Social-Legal Children Protection Act and other acts.

In conclusion, I summarize the content of my thesis, I evaluate the legislation and I propose some solutions that could contribute to the reduction of juvenile delinquency in my opinion.
